Vote Renee Grout for City Council. She's Tough on Crime.

Crime has been out of control in Albuquerque for years, and politicians have made things even worse with an agenda of soft-on-crime policies like Sanctuary City and Catch & Release.

Like us, Renee Grout is sick and tired of waiting for the city government to do something about crime. She's running for City Council to get results and make Albuquerque streets safe.

Renee Grout supports police and will fight to repeal Sanctuary City and end Catch & Release.

Support Police

On the City Council, Renee Grout will stand up to the anti-police radicals and work hard to give law enforcement the support and resources they need and let police do their jobs.

Stop Catch & Release

Renee Grout will lead the charge to put an end to the city's "Catch & Release" policy which forces law enforcement to release violent criminals back onto the street to commit more crimes.

Repeal Sanctuary City

Renee Grout strongly opposes Albuquerque's Sanctuary City law that protects illegal immigrants who commit even violent crimes, and she will fight to repeal it on the City Council.
