Rob Grilley supports Sanctuary City that protects violent criminals.

Rob Grilley supports the Sanctuary City policy that forces police to hide illegal immigrants from federal authorities—even if they commit crimes like rape or murder. (Source: ABQ News Candidate Questionnaire; 10/5/21)

Protecting Violent Criminals

Jacqueline Vigil, a mother of two NM State Police officers, was murdered by Luis Talamantes-Romero, an illegal immigrant with “a lengthy criminal history.” (KOB.com, 1/22/21)

Vigil’s killer should have been deported before, but the city’s Sanctuary City policy forced police to hide him from immigration officials.

Yet even after Jacqueline Vigil’s murder, Rob Grilley still proclaims his support for Sanctuary City.

Renee Grout will fight to repeal Sanctuary City.

Renee Grout strongly opposes Sanctuary City because she understands it protects criminals at the expense of public safety. On the City Council, she will fight hard to repeal Sanctuary and let police do their jobs.

Tough On Crime

Renee Grout will fight for tougher anti-crime laws and give our police the support they need on the City Council to enforce our laws, crack down on crime and get dangerous criminals off our streets.

Renee Grout is a strong supporter of law enforcement
